

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE MICROBIOLOGICAL SAFETY OF FOOD

INFORMATION PAPER

Annual Scientific Advisory Committee Review &
Member Self Assessment

A self assessment appraisal questionnaire for use by Members of Scientific Advisory Committees is attached for information. In line with other Committees, a system of self assessment will be introduced for use by ACMSF Members over the summer, based on this form.

From 2007 Committee assessment and Member self-assessment will be carried out on an annual basis, in accordance with Cabinet Office "Making and Managing Public Appointments" guidance.
