

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE MICROBIOLOGICAL SAFETY OF FOOD
INFORMATION PAPER

Cabinet Office Report on Food and Food Policy in the UK

The Cabinet Office Strategy Unit has produced a report of a project undertaken with Defra, Department of Health, the Food Standards Agency and other departments which examined trends in food consumption and production in the UK and the implications for society, the economy and the environment.

A link to the Cabinet Office website giving further details of the project and the report is given below.

http://www.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/strategy/work_areas/food_policy.aspx

Secretariat
March 2008