

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE MICROBIOLOGICAL SAFETY OF FOOD

INFORMATION PAPER

LACORS/HPA Pilot Study: Assessment of the microbiological safety of ready-to-eat nuts

The report of a pilot study on retail ready-to-eat nuts with a focus on Salmonella carried out in early 2008, is attached for Members' information. The study was carried out to facilitate the development of the scope of the LACORS/HPA national study planned to start in October 2008.

Secretariat
June 2008